OLD BUSINESS

Committee Reports

- Park Committee – Peg Garrison for Doug Chamberlain
Saltwater Park – The county recently purchased and installed a new tabletop that was disfigured.

Deborah DuBois has been busy removing the holly and ivy once again.

Central Park – There are two projects that have been placed on hold. One is the removal of the hedge along Washington Ave. The second is the sprinkling system.

Doug Chamberlain obtained a new bid for the hedge removal which will replace it with a split rail fence and lay bark where the hedge was. The bid was for just under $4600.00.

Peg made a motion on behalf of Doug for up to $4600.00 for the removal of the hedge at Central Park. The motion was approved and the work will move forward as soon as possible. The committee will seek additional bids.

- KIC Liability Ins. – Karol Stevens – Pending approval by the county on the scope of volunteer activity at Central Park.
- Port of Keyport – Gene Warden – Contractors are now pricing out the work, then he will get back with the state and negotiate with the bank. There will be more information next month.
- Dogfish Bay Update – Karol S. – No new information.

Gene Warden asked Rob Gelder about the county recycling paint instead of drying it out before disposing of it. Rob said the county facility located by the airport in Bremerton has a program that takes old paints and gives it away for free. For large amounts, make an appointment.

New Business:

- Heron Street Flag Replacement – Milt Meeds – 15 will be about $800.00 from the same vendor used before. A decision to buy them now has not been decided.
